

Geography

This half term, our topic is The UK. We will be locating the countries, capital cities, rivers and mountains within the UK. During this topic we will identify the human and physical features of the UK as well as looking at why people may want to visit our country.

English

This half term we are focusing on 'Street Child' We will be looking at what life was like for Jim Jarvis during the Victorian Era. Children will have some prior knowledge from our History topic last half term.

Maths

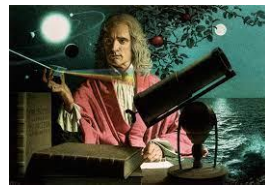

This half term we will be learning about statistics. We will read and interpret line graphs and timetables..

We will also begin to look at geometry, with a key focus around the classification of angles.

Computing

We will be learning how to create our own games in computing this half term. We will be designing, creating and testing each other's games, scanning QR codes to access them.

Science

Forces is our focus for this half term. We will be looking at some of Sir Isaac Newton's motions linked to gravity. During this topic, we will conduct numerous experiments that investigate how forces act on objects.

Art

We will be focusing on instillation art this half term. Cai Guo-Qiang will be our key artist. We will use objects within school to create sculptures that send a message to other people.

PSHE

Our focus throughout Summer 1 is 'Being Our Best' which will include a session linked to first aid and the signs of Sepsis.

Religious Education

This half term, we will be looking at values. We will explore humanism and will identify the values of being a human.

Spanish

Looking at space is our theme for this half term. We will be learning the names of the planets and other objects within our solar system.